

CLEAN SIXTEEN BY PURITY

Clean Label Project tested 160 protein powders from 70 of the top-selling brands representing 83% of the market

The dirtiest 5 protein powders contain exponentially more heavy metals, per serving, than the Clean Sixteen cleanest protein powders (shown below). How much more?

PROTE

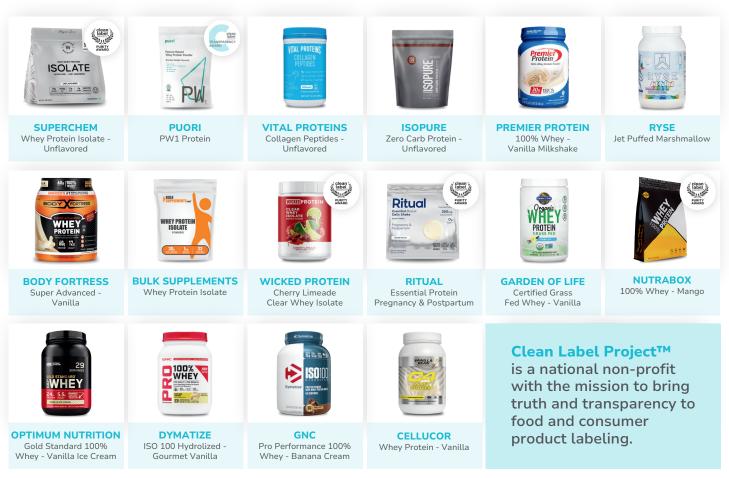

of Protein Powders Exceeded d 700 of Protein Powders Exceeded California Prop 65 Limits for toxic heavy metals in one serving

45.9x Cadmium

PROTEIN

38.4x 31.5x Mercury

These 16 protein powders stood out as non-detect (ND) for Lead, Cadmium, Mercury & Arsenic

((()) CleanLabelProject

(O)